Dear Sir:

I have been for some short time past intending to call in the Water Color Painted Likeness of Sir Walter Scott deposited with You for exhibition by the Trustees of the Corcoran Art Gallery.

I expect a visit from some friends from Europe who would desire to look at it - and I find that my family are rather averse to my parting with the picture, as in some or that account the heirs of any Mr Burn Myself - that I might still make an exception in the case of its being deemed for deposit in a Gallery such as that so nobly instituted by the Corcoran in a city in which in the service of the Government I have passed the best days of my life - and where my children & myself could still see the picture hung among the Masterpieces there.

If on the panel, bending gilt & set in velvet background (as I have seen in one case) were put around it - it might make a very interesting & attractive feature of the Gallery.

Yours very truly

treasure as heir-loom.

And I need only, on my own part, recall to your recollection my statement that it was at the extreme pressure of difficulties caused me by a very severe loss of near 5000 Dollars through the Jay Cooke failure that induced me to consider for a moment the idea of parting with that picture.

Besides being a fine work of art in itself — it is the only likeness (original) of Sir W. Scott in the United States with the exception of one in the possession of the Pickman family of Boston — painted by Leslie.

And I had myths of communicating with parties in Boston who would be likely to enhance the opportunity of securing such an original.

But I am dismissed the idea of parting with it to a distance — even for a consideration approaching its intrinsic value — the sum I named to you being viewed by the few able to judge as moderate enough.

I would only, however, add — whilst desiring to influence

Dear Mr MacLeod

I intended to go over to see you today but my daughter said you had not yet begun to put up the pictures —

You have missed the picture seller which in strength of Color and drawing I think one of the finest — best pictures I have seen in a long time — but the "Belle a la Voile" Color you will. I think I find in it my way one of the strongest and remarkable things in the Gallery — it is as fine I think as "Mesonier" a splendid thing,

A friend of mine went over today to see one or two objects in the gallery and says he found the Gallery closed at 20 minutes before 4 this afternoon — at what hour do you close!

Can't you dispense with hanging the new pictures purchased two years — deferring hanging them until you do the rehanging —

as the Mulready Charlotte Corday picture was recently finished we should defer varnishing it I think —

Mr. W. Lead.

Dear Sir.

The photo is from life - done in 67. when I am living in Paris. it was a freak of the photo's to seat the artist behind a picture frame, and at that time carved picture were taken in that way.

The Cooley picture - has the date on back written by the artist and corresponds to the day he was sitting & think the artist told me - but am not quite sure, and I have not read up his life to exactly fix it.

Hastily Yours

S. P. Avery

I am glad you are pleased with the Pictures — the Charlotte Corday is a good thing — but the "Details" water Blow is a long way ahead of it — The Corn & Grapes from the Photographic Stand point is wonderful and will please a great many — It is by a remarkable man and that may & cost only 150 or 200 ₶

the name of Devil — with you and in the matter —

my party who is a very exact and methodical man insists the Gallery was closed more than 10 minutes before 4 — but no matter just now — I thought certainly the door should never be closed one minute before the time —

The Lime heart Marbles have arrived, — I wrote Mr Riggs today to send order to have the cases examined at Gatkey — it would do to open them here, perhaps it is you who attends to it — I would like the order sent tomorrow — I sent him you would'nt get much for that kind —

I cant tell exactly what day the marbles will be got at — possibly tomorrow or next day — and perhaps not for a week, but we must be ready — please aid the matter if you can —

Yours truly
